PART D · READING COMPREHENSION

TEXT 1 | THE NEW CLASSMATE

There is a new girl in our class. Her name is Linh. She is short and has shoulder-length dark hair and bright eyes. During her first week, she hardly spoke to anyone. Some students thought she was unfriendly, but they were wrong. Linh later explained that she feels shy when she meets new people. She is very creative and patient. Last Friday, our group could not agree on a design for the class reading corner. Linh listened to everyone's ideas, drew a simple plan and helped us work together. This week she is painting a small welcome sign with two classmates. Now everyone wants to be in her group.

19. Why did Linh speak so little in her first week?

A. She disliked her classmates.
B. She felt shy with new people.
C. She was ill.
D. She wanted to change schools.

20. What is Linh doing this week?

A. Reading a book alone.
B. Planning a sports event.
C. Painting a welcome sign.
D. Taking a speaking test.

21. Which pair of adjectives BEST describes Linh?

A. Creative and patient.
B. Noisy and careless.
C. Lazy and unfriendly.
D. Impatient and selfish.

22. What can we learn from Text 1?

A. Quiet students are always unfriendly.
B. A first impression can be wrong.
C. Friends must have the same hobbies.
D. Only confident people can lead a group.

TEXT 2 | AN EMAIL FROM MINH

Dear Alex,
I am writing about my friend Bao. He has curly hair and usually wears glasses only when he reads. He is confident when he gives a talk, but he never shows off. He often helps younger students with their homework. At the moment, Bao and I are preparing a short presentation about healthy habits for our English club. We are practising after school every day this week. On Saturday, we hope to go hiking if the weather is fine.
See you soon,
Minh
